

A photograph of a narrow, cobblestone street in Mexico City. The street is paved with dark, rectangular cobblestones. On the left, a building with a bright red lower half and a yellow upper half stands. To its right, a series of colorful buildings in shades of yellow, blue, and pink line the street. The buildings have white window frames and balconies. A utility pole with wires is visible in the center. The sky is a clear, bright blue. The overall scene is bright and colorful, capturing the essence of Mexican street life.
